BAN ON THE USE OF PLASTICS:

Efforts are taken by the institute to maintain a plastic free campus. Students and staffs are counseled against the use of plastic in the campus. Students can make use of the water cooler to refill their water bottles and are advised not to use plastic bottles.

Our college have already taken steps and some are in the process of finding ways to totally banish plastic from the campus, and also advising students to say no to plastic outside college as well. Banners and slogans are displayed at the prominent locations to create awareness on ill effects of plastics.

CREATE AWARENESS RALLY FOR BAN ON THE USE OF PLASTICS:

The Government of Tamil Nadu announced a ban on “one time use and throw away plastics”, with effect from 01.01.2019. But still people use the disposable plastics, without a concern for our future generation. The NSS wing of Sri Shanmugha College of Engineering organized a rally on 07.01.2019 at Sankari to promote plastic-free among villagers.

The NSS volunteers participated in the rally to contribute to the cause of a cleaner society by promoting the concept of banning of single-use plastic. The students displayed placards with slogans to create an awareness on the ill-effects of using the plastic, substitutes for plastic, reducing and recycling the plastics.

Ban on the use of Plastics Awareness rally conducted on 07.01.2019 at Sankari
